Annual Report

Lied Public Library 2009

The library serves as a guiding light of information, a resource, a reassuring presence and a sanctuary of lifelong learning. These resources provide answers and entertainment that allow everyone in the community to learn and grow.

More than 48,000 visitors came to the Lied Public Library and over 20,000 people logged on to our website and they discovered that the library contains vast resources, exciting new technology, and is quite entertaining.

At the Lied Public Library in Clarinda we have books, technology, and events that are all free and fun for the whole family.

Here's a few things we offer that you may not know about:

Free wireless internet access

Online Library (www.clarindapubliclibrary.org) open 24 hours, 7 days a week

Blogs and Reader's Advisory that offer patron feedback

Community and study rooms

Nintendo Wii® gaming system and gaming events

New-release entertainment DVDs

Host Movie Days

Computer classes and personalized technology help

Hundreds of educational and enjoyable programs for all ages

Downloadable audiobooks will be available soon thanks to a grant from the Page County Community Foundation and Lied Public Library Foundation

The Lied Public Library brings families together through innovative programs and services. Every day the librarians search out the most accurate information to answer questions and solve problems. Here at the Lied Public Library we educate and celebrate lifelong learning. We offer great programs and education for all ages: the central role of a public library and a role that only a public library can fill in a community.

In an average week of 2009, the Lied Public Library...

- Welcomes 930 visitors
- Circulates over 1557 items (nearly 259 per day)
- Answers over 38 questions
- Provides computer use to nearly 259 customers
- Adds 63 items to the Library's collection
- Issues 8 new borrower's cards
- Receives 391 hits on the Library's website
- Processes over 18 requests from customers and libraries for interlibrary loan materials

The library is a relevant, open and vibrant place where people of all ages are welcomed to gather to enrich their own and others lives.
